TENSION PREVAILS

Limitation of Capital Issues Promise Accumulation, Which May Stimulate Investment.

Antitrust References in President's Message Less Drastic Than Expected.

New York, December 6.—Increased strength and activity this week despite unfavorable factors, demonstrated the liquidated condition of the stock market. Tension prevailed in the money market with year-end settlements still to come, but easing of money is expected in January. Strict imitation of capital issues promised an accumulation which may be expected to stimulate investment designand.

and both sides were more willing to inquisite than usual because of Monday's Census Bureau report.

The opening was steady, 2 points down to 1 point up. Cables were better than due, and weather news was unfavorable, but against these was rather heavy liquidation from the long side. Around the sail prices went 182 points under yesterday's close. Seliers of yesterday tried to take profits at this level and put prices up on themselves. Scalping longs bought a little, and the market gradually worked up to 7 points net advance. Then the long side turned profit-takers, and the market fell off to yesterday's last figures. Late in the morning there was little doing. The close was steady at a net rise of 3%s points. The close was steady at a net resolution points.

Much gossip was circulated concerning Monday's report on ginning. Expectations averaged around 12,009,000 bales.

Spot cotton steady and unchanged; midding, 13,3-16c. Sales on the spot 342 bales and 1.18 to arrive. Cotton futures closed: December, 12,51; January, 12,06; March, 13,21; May, 13,27, July, 13,30.
